

THE CRAWFORD FUND
SOUTH AUSTRALIAN
2014 FORUM

FACING THE GLOBAL FOOD CRISIS:

The role of research, training and South Australian expertise

Friday, 21 November, 1.30 – 5.30pm followed by a networking reception to 6.30pm

The Auditorium, SARDI,
Waite Institute Campus,
Hartley Grove, Urrbrae

PROGRAM

OPENING SESSION

Welcome and Overview

Dr John Radcliffe, Chair, South Australian Committee of the Crawford Fund

Opening Address

The Hon Kyam Maher MLC, Parliamentary Secretary to the South Australian Minister of Agriculture, Food and Fisheries

Vote of Thanks

The Hon Tim Fischer, former Chair, Crawford Fund Board and Deputy Prime Minister, and currently Vice Chair, Global Crop Diversity Trust

THE FOOD SECURITY RESEARCH CONUNDRUM

Chair: The Hon Neil Andrew, Chair, Crawford Fund 'Doing Well by Doing Good' Task Force and former Speaker of the House of Representatives and Chair, Crawford Fund Board

Emerging Economies, Productivity Growth and Trade

Prof Kym Anderson, Foundation Director, Centre for International Economic Studies, University of Adelaide, and Trustee of the Washington DC-based International Food Policy Research Institute

South Australian Involvement in International Agricultural Research for Development

Dr Nick Austin, Chief Executive, Australian Centre for International Agricultural Research

Engaging with Scientists from the Developing World: Successes and Challenges

Dr Andrew Barr, Affiliate Professor, University of Adelaide, Farmer and recent Chair, Board of Trustees for CIMMYT, Mexico

Panel of Keynotes

Facilitated by The Hon Neil Andrew

Afternoon Tea

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN RESEARCH AND TRAINING: MAKING A DIFFERENCE THROUGH RESEARCH

Showcasing International Work in South Australian Institutions and Crawford Fund Training: Impact Personally, in SA and in our Region

Chair: Dr Denis Blight, Chief Executive, Crawford Fund

Reducing Poverty and Improving Food Security for Smallholder Livestock Farmers in Papua New Guinea

Dr Philip Glatz, Science Leader, Pigs and Poultry, Livestock and Farming Systems, South Australian Research and Development Institute

Mitigation Strategies of Arsenic Accumulation in Rice Grain: Minimizing Human Exposure, in Bangladesh and India

Dr Mohammad Mahmudur Rahman, Senior Research Fellow, Centre for Environmental Risk Assessment and Remediation, University of South Australia

Research Collaboration and Capacity Building in Tibet

Dr Ann McNeill, Associate Professor, Soils Group Convenor in the School of Agriculture, Food and Wine, University of Adelaide

Opportunities for Students in International Research

Mr Brendan Brown, PhD student, School of Agriculture, Food and Wine, University of Adelaide

Reflection with the Panel and Audience on Key Lessons from International Collaboration

Moderated by Dr Denis Blight

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE OF DOING WELL BY DOING GOOD

Dr John Radcliffe, Chair, South Australian Committee of the Crawford Fund

CLOSE

NETWORKING RECEPTION