

Young Crawford Group

Promoting research and development in international agriculture

The Young Crawford Group organizes lunch meetings with international researchers, on topics including international research and development in agriculture, fisheries, forestry and natural resources management for supporting food security and livelihoods.

We are sponsored by the Crawford Fund which is a non-profit NGO dedicated to raising awareness of the benefits of international agricultural research.

All UTAS staff and students and guests are invited to...

Agriculture and Global Change: Where are we heading

Speakers: Mario Herrero and Philip Thornton

- Date? Thursday 24th March
Time? 1pm to 2pm
Where? TIA Board Room
What? A presentation and discussion, with free lunch provided.

Please RSVP to David Parsons (dparsons@utas.edu.au) for catering purposes.