

THE CRAWFORD FUND TASMANIA

2017 Forum

‘TASMANIA DOING WELL BY DOING GOOD’

The benefits and impacts of international research in agriculture, fisheries and forestry

Government House, Hobart

10 May 2017

9.30 am - 12.30 pm (followed by a networking lunch)

- 9.30 am Registration and coffee
- 10.00 am Welcome
Mr Dick Warner, Chairman, Tasmanian Committee of the Crawford Fund
- 10.10 am Opening Address
The Hon Jeremy Rockliff
Deputy Premier of Tasmania and Minister for Primary Industries and Water
- 10.20 am ACIAR’s research partnership model – benefits to developing countries and Tasmania
Dr Peter Horne, General Manager Country Programs, Australian Centre for International Agricultural Research (ACIAR)
- 10.40 am From Sandy Bay to Rawalpindi: Stepping out into international research for development
Ms Miriam McCormack, Research Program Officer, Social Science and Economics Cluster, ACIAR
- 10.50 am Questions for ACIAR speakers
- 11.00 am Tasmanians doing well by doing good: Building capacity in developing countries
Moderated Panel Discussion and Q&A facilitated by Sally Dakis, Tasmanian Country Hour
- Cattle in Vietnam – Tasmanian Institute of Agriculture
- Dr Stephen Ives, Research Fellow in Agronomy and Farming Systems
 - Dr Lydia Turner, Social Researcher, TIA Dairy Centre
 - Ms Elya Richardson, PhD Candidate in Agricultural Education
- Fisheries in SE Asia and the Western Pacific - CSIRO
- Mr Craig Proctor, Fisheries Scientist
 - Dr Will White, Senior Curator, Australian National Fish Collection
- Forest soils and biodiversity in PNG - Forest Practices Authority
- Dr Sarah Munks, Manager Biodiversity
 - Dr Peter McIntosh, Manager Earth Sciences and Cultural Heritage
- 12.10 pm Opportunities in international agriculture at UTAS
Prof Holger Meinke, Director, Tasmanian Institute of Agriculture and Head, School of Land and Food, UTAS
- 12.20 pm The Crawford Fund in Tasmania
Dr Neville Mendham, Tasmanian Crawford Fund Coordinator
- 12.30 pm Thanks and Close
Dr Denis Blight, Chief Executive Officer, The Crawford Fund

Lunch and Networking