

THE CRAWFORD FUND NORTHERN TERRITORY

2018 Forum & Reception

Developing the Indo-Pacific Region and Developing the North: Opportunities and Partnerships

Parliament House, Darwin

10 May 2018

Forum 3.00 - 5.00pm & Reception 5.00 - 6.30pm

- 2.45pm Parliament House Security & Registration
- 3.00 pm Welcome
Emeritus Professor Helen Garnett PSM, Chair, Crawford Fund NT Committee and Former Vice Chancellor, Charles Darwin University (CDU)
- 3.10pm Opening Address
The Hon Ken Vowles, The Minister for Primary Industry and Resources
- 3.20pm Progress in Food Security: ACIAR and NT Roles
Professor Andrew Campbell, CEO, Australian Centre International Agricultural Research
- 3.35pm Q&A
- 3.45pm Territorians “Doing Well by Doing Good”
Chair: Professor Simon Maddocks, VC and President, CDU
Territorian trainers and students, including those who have received Crawford Fund support, will explain their work, its benefits in-country, to the Northern Territory and to them personally and professionally:
- Natural resources and indigenous livelihoods in NT and Indonesia
Associate Professor Natasha Stacey, Crawford Fund trainer and Leader of the Natural Resources-based Livelihoods Theme, Research Institute for Environment and Livelihoods (RIEL), CDU
 - Meeting mango market expectations in NT and Cambodia
Maddison Clonan, Crawford Fund awardee and Research Horticulturalist, Plant Industries Development, NT Department of Primary Industry and Resources
 - Coastal livelihoods and small-scale fisheries in eastern Indonesia
Pia Harkness, 3rd year PhD student, CDU and former AVID volunteer
 - Building capacity for livelihoods and resources in NT and Indonesia
Rohan Fisher, Crawford Fund trainer and Research Fellow, RIEL, CDU
- 4.30pm Q&A
- 4.45pm Opportunities for Partnerships: Capacity Building for the NT and Our Neighbours
Dr Colin Chartres, CEO, Crawford Fund
- 4.55pm Short Break and Move to Reception Area
- 5.00-6.30pm Networking Reception