

THE CRAWFORD FUND
For a Food Secure World

THE CRAWFORD FUND DEREK TRIBE AWARD.

Terms and Conditions 2019

Purpose

The Award is made in recognition of distinguished contributions to the application of research in agriculture and natural resource management in a developing country or countries.

Eligibility

The Award is open to citizens of developing countries¹.

Nominations

Nominations can only be made by Australian Researchers or Researchers from International Agricultural Centres. Nominations for the Award, which must be seconded, must include the candidate's full name and title, a short biography, a curriculum vitae and a citation generally supporting the nomination. The Selection Committee will consider the candidate's professional reputation and the impact of his/her contributions in the application of research in agriculture and natural resource management in a developing country or countries. All nominations are confidential.

Responsibilities of Recipient

The recipient shall be required to undertake a visit of about two weeks to agricultural centres in Australia with the intention of enhancing networking and linkages between the recipient's home institution and country with similar bodies and individuals in Australia.

The recipient shall be requested to extend those networks within his or her home country.

The recipient shall be required to attend a seminar, or other public event, nominated by The Crawford Fund, to receive the Award and to deliver an address to be termed The Crawford Fund Derek Tribe Award Address.

Closing Date

Nominations must be received at the Central Office of The Crawford Fund on or before COB 15 February 2019. Nomination forms can be requested from crawford@crawfordfund.org

¹ Developing countries are those listed and declared by the Minister of Foreign Affairs for the purposes of the Overseas Aid Gift Deduction Scheme established by the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 updated 2015 (see <http://dfat.gov.au/about-us/publications/Pages/list-of-developing-countries-as-declared-by-the-minister-for-foreign-affairs.aspx>)

Selection Committee

A Selection Committee comprising the Director Capacity Building and two other persons, selected for their knowledge of a broad range of international agricultural activities, shall receive and consider nominations and make a recommendation for endorsement by the Board of Directors. The Selection Committee, where necessary, may seek assistance in determining the relative merits of the nominees.

The recipient will be notified of the Award by letter signed by the Chairman of the Board.

Guidelines for the Selection Committee

In determining the successful candidate, the Selection Committee shall take into account the candidate's professional reputation and the impact of his/her contributions in the application of research in agriculture and natural resource management in a developing country or countries. Some preference shall be given to younger nominees. In making their determination, the Selection Committee will also take into account the public lecturing abilities of the nominees.

Late nominations and self-nominations will not be accepted.

Closing date is cob 15 June 2019

