

Doing Well by Doing Good in the Northern Territory

Novotel Darwin CBD, 100 The Esplanade, Darwin City

Tuesday 06 June 2023 | 7.30am to 9.00am including breakfast

-
- | | |
|--------|---|
| 7.30pm | Registration and Breakfast Available |
| 8.00am | Welcome and Introduction to the Crawford Fund

Em Prof Helen Garnett , Chair, Crawford Fund Northern Territory and Forum Chair |
| 8.10am | Our Guest Panel

Fiona Simson , Chair of the Commission for International Agricultural Research and President of the National Farmers Federation, who will explain benefits to farmers from agricultural research funded through the development assistance budget.

Prof Andrew Campbell , CEO, Australian Centre International Agricultural Research (ACIAR) and former Director of RIEL at Charles Darwin University who will address "Food Security: Challenges, Opportunities and Achievements."

Dr Samantha Nowland , Senior Research Scientist, Darwin Aquaculture Centre at Northern Territory Government who has benefited from a Crawford Fund scholarship, award and training grants. Her talk will focus on her NextGen personal journey and in-country impact from research for development. |
| 8.45am | Interactive Q&A |
| 8.55am | Close |
| 9.00am | Networking & Departure |
- 